

Homework

Level 3

Alter a dress to shorten the torso through the zipper.

Alter a simple dress with a model who either has an asymmetrical body or who pretends to have an asymmetrical body.

She can have either scoliosis, one leg shorter, or any other body shape that causes asymmetry this is located in the student reference library. Then do a practice swatch of mending. This will be good practice free hand sewing for doing lace hems.

Watch the Mending English Netting video.

Do a lace hem or practice on 36-inch length of netting with lace.

Hem a heavily beaded dress or practice on a 36-inch length of beaded netting.

Lengthen at least 1 ½" on the front of a hem. At least 1 layer.

Be sure to measure the skirt first so you know when you have lengthened it enough.

Take in the side seams of a heavily beaded dress.

Do a hiney tuck or "booty scoop" on a dress.

Ponder, and then write your own personal business philosophy.

This philosophy does not need to be long, but it should be well thought out. Print it out and put it in a visible place in your sewing area.

Homework

When you have finished all 3 levels of the homework, you are welcome to submit to the academy your business philosophy, a head shot picture, the general area you live in (no addresses), and contact information.

We would love to put you up on our graduates page. This is not mandatory, some students just enjoy learning new skills, but if you are starting a career, brides and bridal shops will use this information to contact you for work. So make sure you are prepared to take on work if you decide to be put up on the graduate page.

Congratulations, You are now a Master Bridal Alterations Specialist!

I wish you all the best in your new career.

Love

Dee Dee Anderson
